

Plurality of views is the cornerstone of our nation. Please do not attack our democracy by allowing a small corporate group to effectively control the understanding of our citizens. That is shameful, and your duty to the public interest mandates at the very least keeping current ownership rules intact. Respectfully - JK